STAR CHAMBER RULES SCHOOL BOARD, HE SAYS

Storrew Appears at State House to Favor Bill to Abolish Present Body.

WOULD JUDGE MAYOR POWER

James J. Storrew, upon the legislative committee on cities, at the State House today, to favor a bill to abolish the present Board of School Directors and put the direction of the public schools under the control of the mayor. The bill, which is introduced by Mr. Storrew, would give the mayor the right to appoint and remove the members of the board, and to give him the right to appoint and remove the members of the board of education. The bill would also give the mayor the right to appoint and remove the members of the board of education.

Automatic Sub-Committee.

Mr. Storrew criticized the present School Board, saying it was governed by automatic sub-committees, which work in secret. He said that the board was composed of men who were not interested in the schools, and who were not responsible to the public. He said that the board was a "black box" and that the public had no right to know what was going on inside.

"Placing Patches."

"Each sub-committee is forever patching upon the school system," he said. "The board is a patchwork of different interests, and it is impossible to get anything done. The board is a collection of men who are not interested in the schools, and who are not responsible to the public. The board is a 'black box' and the public has no right to know what is going on inside."

DENOUNCE PASTOR

AS RUSSIAN SPY
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 7. At a meeting of the Russian American club, the foreign editor of the Birmingham Post-Herald was denounced as a Russian spy. The editor, who is named John J. O'Brien, was accused of being a spy for the Russian government. The club members said that O'Brien was a spy and that he was working for the Russian government.

Rioting Marks Opening of Struggle Between

Trainmen and Irborough Company.

Army of 3,500 Policemen on Guard as

Strike Breakers Try to Move Cars.

By Boston American Special Wire.
NEW YORK, March 7.—An attack by an infuriated crowd upon a subway train at One Hundred and Tenth street to-day resulted in the serious injury of the conductor, who was badly beaten, and the disabling of the train by the blowing out of the fuse.

The rioting followed a strike of all the "L" and Subway trainmen in New York city, which began at 4 a. m. to-day.

Charles A. Dougherty, a tower switchman employed in the subway at Fulton street, was arrested upon the charge of Assistant Trainmaster Christopher Barnard for looking himself in the switch tower and refusing to work the switch and preventing anybody from getting in to do so. The prisoner was arraigned in the Centre Street Police Court and paroled.

George Pepper, one of the strike leaders, declares that the strike can be carried on for six months and more if it is necessary to win the fight. President Gilligan of the Conductors' Union, in addressing the men, said:

"Keep your heads level. The company will be coming to us on bonded cars within forty-eight hours. Stay out of saloons. Let there be no violence."

The emergency order which controlled the cars has greatly frightened the public, and it is feared that a serious accident will occur if an attempt is made to run all the trains with this force.

The emergency order, which controlled the cars and by which any passenger can stop a train, have been removed. This was done to prevent strike sympathizers from stopping trains and blocking the tracks.

The official of the company are fearful of accidents. It was shown by the way passengers were carried this morning only the middle cars were filled with passengers, the end cars running empty. It was probably figured that in case of collision the front and rear cars could be smashed and still passengers would be unharmed.

The strikers allege that a number of men who in the past have been charged for physical disorder, are working as strike breakers, and that the company is thus endangering the lives of its passengers. Two and three men are riding in the motor cars on each train, being charged with the duty of keeping the cars moving.

LABORERS JOIN STRIKERS.

PROFESSOR BUTTS GIRLS WELLESLEY

King Learns of Scheme to Attend Lecture in Ball Dress, and Dons Evening Garb.

TABLES TURNED BY MOVE

There's two distinctly new things out at Wellesley today for the thirty teachers of the fair students to discuss. For the first time a college lecture has been given by the girls in ballroom costume, and with the lecturer in formal evening dress. But second, and what the girls consider more remarkable, some eight of the most select girls on campus and the thirty teachers of the girls have been invited to a party given by the girls in ballroom costume, and with the lecturer in formal evening dress. But second, and what the girls consider more remarkable, some eight of the most select girls on campus and the thirty teachers of the girls have been invited to a party given by the girls in ballroom costume, and with the lecturer in formal evening dress.

Head Professor "Kicked."

Then some one started a rumor that Professor King, who comes from Mrs. Maw's for this special lecture course, had "kicked" at the girls. The girls were told that the professor had "kicked" at the girls. The girls were told that the professor had "kicked" at the girls. The girls were told that the professor had "kicked" at the girls.

In Immaculate Garb.

At lecture time the professor appeared, resplendent in evening costume, severely correct in cut and fit, irreproachable enough even for the critical inspection of some of the brightest Wellesley eyes. As casually as though he were a man, he stepped into the hall, and with a slight bow to the girls, he took his seat at the head of the table.

Forthwith he proceeded to enlighten the assembled college on the subject of "The Girls of the Future."

LABOR NEWS

The outlook is exceedingly bright for the phasing of the Allied Printing Trades Council label on all school books in this city. At a meeting of the Council's most favorable report was made by John A. McPherson regarding the recent conference between a joint committee from the Council, the Typographical Union and the Central Labor Union and a committee representing the Boston School Board. The committee from the Typographical Union was granted the following: 1. M. C. O'Brien, of the Boston Printing Company, and Vienna Brothers & Hinson, of Cambridge. Two other applications were turned down.

Secretary McDonald was instructed to write all unions throughout the city asking, secondly, stationary stores, drug stores, record books, etc., made under union conditions.

SEMPRICH AND CARUSO WIN LAURELS IN "LUCIA"

BIG THEATRE CONVENTION OPENING NIGHT

Boston Society Out in Force and Even Herr Director Con-reid Is Pleased.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM SHOWN

By J. Frank Davis.

BOSTON'S greatest grand opera was opened last evening, to a house the greatest and most brilliant since opera opened.

Semperich, the great Herr Director, who has been in the city for some time, was the first to appear on the stage. He was followed by the Metropolitan Opera House company, from New York, including the famous tenor, Enrico Caruso, who was the first to sing. The performance was a wonderful success, and the audience was greatly pleased.

Standing Room Only.

Never in Boston, was there an opening of the great opera season like this. Never in the Boston Theatre was there such an audience of artists and musicians. The performance was a wonderful success, and the audience was greatly pleased.

ONE MAN IN 20 FOR POKETING

Representative Weeks of Everett is preparing to submit to the State Legislature a new "pocketing" bill, in place of the one now reported by the Committee on Labor, which will permit strikers to elect one man in twenty in the personnel of the company.

The new bill kills all the old ones, and the existing law. The first action provides that as soon as a strike or lockout occurs, the chief of the local police shall order with the strikers and not out with any man in twenty in the personnel of the company.

It is in fact, thought, to say that no time has ever passed a Boston audience more than this. The bill is a new one, and it is not in the hands of the Legislature.

HIGH TRIBUTE USED TOBACCO EVERY DAY AND LIVED TO BE 100

Maurice Gillespie, Who Was Buried To-day, Never Employed a Physician.

The body of Maurice Gillespie of No. 25 Court street, Roxbury, who never had a doctor, who used tobacco every day, who was a young man, and who lived to be one hundred years old, was borne to the grave in Calvary cemetery today for the old man's four grandsons.

These pillars were John and Edward Flood and Frank and Louis K. Flood. The funeral took place from All Saints' Church.

Funeral of Children.

The old Maurice Gillespie was one of the sturdiest characters in Greater Boston. He was a carpenter by trade, working up to his seventy-fifth year. His health was marvelous. To his death his families were well preserved.

His intellect was keen. He kept track of current matters. At the same time his vigorous mind traveled back to his boyhood days. In the early part of his life, he was particularly fond of using pipes. He was particularly fond of using pipes. He was particularly fond of using pipes.

THE AMERICAN

Offers You

A 12-Volume Encyclopedia

Direct from Binder to You--

The Co-operative Plan.

In organizing this Club the American simply acts as a purchasing agent, representing both the publishers and the public. On account of its immense purchasing and distributing powers an entire edition of the Encyclopedia was secured at about the actual cost of production, thereby saving all the profits that ordinarily go to the publisher, the dealer and the general agent. Complete sets are shipped to Club Members direct from the binders; no middleman makes a profit. This shows what a great saving can be effected by co-operation.

The new Standard Encyclopedia was selected for this enterprise because in the judgment of many leading educators it is the best reference work ever published for the home, for busy men and for school students of all ages. Its 12 large volumes contain practically as much as the most voluminous sets, only condensed and digested into convenient form.

This Encyclopedia is thoroughly up-to-date in every particular, having just been completed at enormous expense and after many years of labor. It is authentic and reliable, and numbers among its editors and contributors more than any of the world's greatest scholars and educators.

It is impossible in this limited space to describe fully the workings of our Co-operative Club and the plan of sale, whereby members may have the complete set at enormous expense and after many years of labor. It is authentic and reliable, and numbers among its editors and contributors more than any of the world's greatest scholars and educators.

Those who mail the attached coupon promptly, which is not an application for membership, but merely a request for information, will receive, free of charge, a booklet containing specimen pages of the Encyclopedia, full page photographic portraits of the Mikado of Japan and the Emperor of Russia, double-page maps of Japan and Korea, besides many other beautiful and interesting things selected from the Encyclopedia. With this booklet will be sent full particulars regarding the Co-operative Club.

THIS OFFER IS MADE ONLY TO RESPONSIBLE MEN AND WOMEN. NO CHILDREN NEED APPLY.

THE NEW STANDARD ENCYCLOPEDIA

ROXBURY CENTENARIAN'S Recipe for a Long Life

Use tobacco every day. Never have a doctor in the house. Keep the heart young by associating with children. Work and work hard every day. Be cheerful.

He possessed a fund of wags of his tongue, which the young men in the household learned to use.

Believed in Tobacco.

"I believe in tobacco," the old man once said. "I have used it every day since I was a boy. I am now without it. I have never had a doctor since the day I was born. I have never had a doctor since the day I was born. I have never had a doctor since the day I was born."
